1. I wish to express my personal commendation for the professional manner in which you represented this command in the recent civilian employee appeal of a demotion action before the Merit Systems Protection Board. The favorable decision attests to the professional thoroughness in which you prepared the management's case.
2. I am sure that your preparation for and appearance at the hearing represented a sacrifice from a very busy law practice. I appreciate your personal contribution towards the fulfillment of this command's responsibilities.
3. I wish you continued success in your military career. A copy of this letter has been forwarded to your personnel file.
